Description of organization (history, mission, focus):
Turkish Women’s International Network is a four-year old social enterprise. We imagine a world where every woman can realize her potential. We exist to inspire, support and celebrate women in their journey for self actualization in Turkey and abroad in a global sisterhood. We live by our motto: “If she did it, so can I!” Our community shares the same values which are; Belonging, Courage, Generosity, Curiosity, Collaboration, Accountability

TurkishWIN programs include inspiring WEB TV Talks, mentoring, campus program and social impact networks. We share whole-hearted stories of positive role models in TurkishWIN talks, facilitate experience exchange with mentoring and invest in the future generation at university campuses. Currently, our community organizes events in seven cities (Istanbul, Ankara, New York, London, Zurich, Boston, San Francisco) and is composed of 450+ members, 70 students in 34 universities and a community of 20.000 women and men in Turkey and abroad. Our members include professionals, academics, entrepreneurs, change makers, artists and students who share the same core values: curiosity, generosity, courage, belonging and accountability.
