Parking Instructions:

If your visit is two hours of less, street parking in our neighborhood is available. Do not park next to curbs painted red or yellow and please curb your wheels to avoid being ticketed (while the car is in park, turn the wheels so they point away from the curb if you are parked uphill and turn the wheels so they point towards the curb if you are parked downhill).

If your visit is two hours or more, please pull up to our school at 1735 LeRoy and double park in front of our building. Walk up the stairs to the reception area and let the student receptionist know that you are here for an Admissions visit and that you need parking. An Admissions representative will give you a parking pass to display on your car’s dashboard and also direct you to the parking lot.
