Current Events Discussion Group

The Current Events Discussion SIG meets once a month in Loyola 160 for a stimulating two hour discussion on a timely topic of interest to all group members. We choose the monthly meeting date and discussion topics using online survey instruments.

Our group averages 16 to 24 attendees per meeting. Discussions are facilitated and all members have an equal opportunity to participate and contribute in a respectful atmosphere.

Some of our previous topics include: inequality in America; privacy; the media; education; labor unions; and the impact of technology.

Between meetings, we share articles and other information via group e-mails. At a recent discussion, we featured a speaker, and also on another occasion, showed a video followed by a discussion of that video. Similar events are planned in the future.
