

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY
FACULTY HANDBOOK
SECTION 2.4

2.4 Provost and Vice Presidents

The Provost has authority for the administration of all academic and co-curricular programs and services. All responsibilities ascribed to the Provost in this Handbook are understood to be responsibilities of the Provost, designated vice provost, or other designate.

The Vice President for Administration and Finance has authority for the fiscal and business operations of the University, including preparation and administration of the annual budget, and human resources.

The Vice President for University Relations has authority for alumni affairs and the development of financial support from individuals, corporations, and foundations.
