Alcohol Awareness Week

DON'T BE HAUNTED

October 26th – October 30th, 2009

Monday, October 26th: Medical Amnesty at SCU: Incentive for Care or Invitation to Drink?
A student panel discussion about the current Medical Amnesty proposal. The panel, moderated by John (Kurt) Wagner, Editor of The Santa Clara, features Sean Brachvogel, AS Student Body President; Endalk Yitref, former Community Facilitator; and Kari Kjos, Hackworth Fellow.
6:00 – 7:30 p.m., The Bronco. Co-sponsored by the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics and Associated Students.

Tuesday, October 27th: “Old School” (the movie)
Come watch the popular movie “Old School” and meet our SCU Peer Health Educators! Open to all SCU students—just check in at the door. FREE FOOD!!
8:00 p.m. Swig Sky Lounge. Co-sponsored by The Wellness Center and CyPhi, Modern Perspectives, and Unity RLCs.

Wednesday, October 28th: Beer Goggle Olympics
Think you can handle your liquor? Come test your ability to complete an obstacle course while “impaired” at different BAC levels.
12:00 – 2:00 p.m., Tabling outside in front of the Benson Fountain

Thursday, October 29th: Spin the Bottle: Sex, Lies, & Alcohol
Think you’ve seen it all? Come watch this amazing video about the way that the media and pop culture glamorize and promote excessive drinking and high-risk behavior. The video also discusses the ways that alcohol affects the decisions of real men and women. After the video, there will be a discussion led by the Peer Health Educators.
7:00 p.m. 2nd floor Library, room 205

Friday, October 30th: Beer Goggle Olympics
Think you can handle your liquor? Come test your ability to complete an obstacle course while “impaired” at different BAC levels.
12:00 – 2:00 p.m. Tabling in Malley Center Lobby

All Week:
Ever wonder how your drinking compares with others at SCU? Want to know how many calories you are “drinking”? Take e-CHUG, an anonymous online alcohol assessment. Visit: www.scu.edu/wellness and click on the e-CHUG link on the right side!
In compliance with the ADA/504, please direct your accommodation requests to Dr. Alison Bateman at 408-554-4409 or abateman@scu.edu.
