

NOTICE OF INTENT TO COMPLETE
THE LL.M. WRITING REQUIREMENT
Law Student Services Office
 Submit form to: LawStudentServices@scu.edu

LL.M. students must complete a written research paper either in conjunction with a 2 – 3 unit class or as an independent research paper (LAW 298) under the supervision of a faculty member. Please refer to the SCU Law bulletin for program specific guidelines:
<http://law.scu.edu/bulletin/degree-programs/>

The form must be turned in to the Student Services Office in Charney 114 no later than the end of the fourth week of the semester in which the student intends to complete the writing requirement.

By completing this form, the student agrees to enroll in the course specified below and complete the associated writing requirement under the rules outlined by the supervising professor. The writing requirement must be completed and reviewed by the supervising professor and students must successfully earn credit for the course before the LL.M. degree can be awarded.

Students must notify the Law Student Services Office if they drop the class or wish to complete the paper with a different professor. Successful completion of the course will be verified at the end of each semester in which the student intends to complete the writing requirement. Students not meeting the requirement will be notified once grades are posted.
